

Acceptance test

For the application to be considered complete for first delivery the following requirement must be considered fulfilled.

- User should be able to record and save the routes that he or she undertakes.
- User should see a path that is painted on the map representing the route.
- User should be able to insert checkpoint that will activate an event in a route.
- User should be able to add music from sd card into a checkpoint.
- User should be able to record audio cues and insert it in a checkpoint.
- User should be able to define how big the radius of a checkpoint is.
- User should be able to start a saved route.
- User should be able to see stats during the route such as speed, distance and calories.
- User should be able to see and save the result after a route.
- User should be able to save results for a route.
- User should be able to delete results for a route.
- User should be able to see statistics and graphs of saved results.
- User should be able to select activity and weight.